

The Church Times Train-A-Priest (TAP) Fund

Support TAP Africa this Lent

Since 1952, the TAP Fund has supported ordinands and their families in England. This year, thanks to a substantial legacy, we already have sufficient funds to support any Church of England ordinand who comes up against an unexpected financial crisis.

So for this year's TAP appeal we are widening our outlook. All the money raised will go to support clergy training in Africa. We are delighted to be working with the Council of Anglican Provinces of Africa (CAPA) to make this happen.

The Revd Duncan Dormor, general secretary of USPG, writes: "CAPA has long experience of helping to equip priests — through a variety of contexts of theological training and ministerial formation — to serve their communities, drawing on a wealth of experience and good practice across the continent. To train a priest within the Church in Africa is to invest in the transformation of whole communities."

Please consider a donation to TAP Africa this Lent, in the knowledge that anything you give will have a tremendous impact on the lives of those training for the priesthood in some of the toughest situations in the world.

CHURCH TIMES

How to donate to the TAP Fund

Every penny you can give goes to ordinands in Africa who face financial difficulty, to support them as they complete their training. Nothing is retained to cover administrative expenses.
